Dear Parents and Carers,

As we reach the final week of this term, a heartfelt well done to everyone in our school community. It has been a period that has felt settled, purposeful, and full of energy, and that is a testament to the collective efforts of our teachers, children, and parents. We are immensely grateful for the continued support of everyone in school, our families, and our local partners, including our hardworking PTA, whose contributions help provide more chances for each of our children to flourish.

The culmination of this term's learning this week has been celebrated through truly rich outcomes across the school and has demonstrated our Six Learning Attributes—Creativity, Reflection, Empathy, Independence, Resilience, and Curiosity—in abundance. In Year 6, the children have developed a profound understanding of the courage and science of Mary Anning as well as their own understanding of evolution. Year 5 have completed their wonderful autobiographies stepping into 'Shackleton's Shoes' with deep pride. Our Year 4 geographers have beautifully demonstrated their knowledge of river processes, and in Year 3, the children have produced stunning landscape art alongside lyrical and locally based narratives. Excellent teaching and learning, one and all.

Finally, we wish everyone a restful and enjoyable break and look forward to seeing everyone return full of vim and vigour—ready to be 'Ready, Respectful, Safe – Together' once again.
